Dear Mr. President,

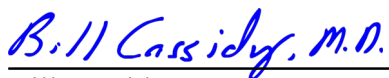

We are writing to respectfully urge you to consider including Charlie Kirk among the figures honored in the National Garden of American Heroes. The Garden's mission to celebrate individuals who have shaped our nation's story is a powerful statement about the values and achievements we seek to preserve for future generations.

Charlie Kirk has made significant contributions as a leader in civic education, grassroots organization, and public dialogue. Through his work, he has inspired countless young Americans to engage in civic life and to appreciate the responsibilities of citizenship. His efforts highlight the enduring importance of free expression, active participation, and leadership in strengthening our democracy.

The inclusion of Mr. Kirk in the National Garden would not only honor his personal achievements but would also underscore the vital role that civic engagement plays in our national heritage. Recognizing leaders who encourage participation and dialogue ensures that the Garden reflects both the historical and contemporary voices that continue to shape America.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

Bill Cassidy, M.D.
